(Title accredited to Moe and her buddy Heather)

1. Stop Using Anti-perspirant! It is expensive, and addictive! It actually causes you to sweat, so that you believe you need to use even more. BAD! BAD! STOP USING IT. YOU WILL SWEAT MORE FOR ABOUT A WEEK BUT THEN YOUR BODY WILL REMEMBER HOW TO REGULATE ITSELF. INSTEAD, USE AGAIN DEODORANT, OR BAKING SODA.

Love, Moe.

2. Douche is BAD! Its yet another product, designed by men, to make women feel ashamed and dirty. Your body, and your smells are NATURAL, and a result of your Vagina's line of defense. Douche washes away these and may force ANY infections into your way of the cervix. A minor itch could into something MEAN. SO, if you want your own GENTLE solution (VINEGAR / water) → (DISTILLED)*, and Douche GENTLY!

Love, MIRANDA

THE PROM: AN EXCERISE IN VISIBILITY

Ok now, I speak from expeniences. I've been to two proms, and I'll definately attend this year. WITH MY GIRLFRIENDS. I'm so sick of them dragging their little hetero sexist parade out before my eyes. ~~so sick~~ I got sick of trying to console dejected older girlfriends, as they sat around prom night, wishing they could safely share some culminating high school experience with a "loved one". So, around tenth grade, I said "fuck that," and now I'm a veteran. Now, many people ask "Why risk life and limb, for such a uselesse cause?". Firstly - I've NEVER been attacked at the prom. I have been at the ~~the~~ Qwikie Mart - weigh your own risks - if you're really worried, talk to your schools security department. You'll find them eager to avoid lawsuits that may ensue if you get beaten up. Also, go with a group. There is safety in numbers. As for the "useless cause" argument; our love is worthy of public acceptance, we deserve the same opportunities. Just because it's different, that doesn't mean it doesn't count, right? Also, America needs to accept that we exist. What better opportunity to get it through their

I BELIEVE in Field Hockey Sticks and Rats. Non violence is a wonderful choice - but we don't have a choice. Non-violence is a sham for us, a way to control us. Passivity is drummed into us since birth, to make us easily dominated. Men make us into their ideal. Lean not CHOSE to be non-violent when it defeats my own PRESERVATION. FIND YOUR STRENGTH. IT'S THERE, IT'S JUST HIDDEN UNDER 22 TONS OF LACE AND EYESHADOW. TAKE IT BACK, AND USE IT.

M.J.

Patriarchy must end revolution - now. I want it, like, in my lifetime.

The Earth hates men. You can just tell. I love hurricanes. No "technology" can withstand them. Earth has power. She forces men to listen to her, when they don't heed her warnings. So should we act Rowdy.

Madonna
(of the wasps...)

Every time I turn on my television, she's there. Groping, (herself and others), leering, and squeaking out bits of "oh so interesting" personal philosophy: Madonna. Beautiful body, moves to kill for, the brain of a retarded orangutang...

It's gut wrenching to watch her to continue to exploit gays and lesbians. Yes, I am mend my orangutang crack to include "except when it cores to sucking money and attention from the mouths of babes... " Madonna has turned Lesbianism into a cheap publicity stunt, and noone seems to be noticing. Perhaps that is because nobody cares who exploits the fairies and dykes, but my childish faithe in humanity leads me to hope that it's really because nobody believes she has the brain to conceive of such an idea. No self respecting lesbian would have labled herself "boy-toy", nor would she have married a goober like Sean Penn. "oh , but she's not a lesbian", you say, "she's bisexual!". Bullshit. People do not go from being male oriented sex symbols, to free love overnight. Unless, that is, they've realised that they need a new gimmick to sell the new album.
